

Hop-On Hop-Off Attractions

Granville Island

A public market full of fresh produce and craft shops, theatres, and bakeries where you spend an hour or a whole afternoon. The Island also features a local microbrewery, a Kid's Market and fine dining establishments.

Stanley Park

The lush 1,000-acre Stanley Park is a playground for the kid in all of us! Come say hello to the Beluga whale at the Vancouver Aquarium or take a ride around the seawall on a bicycle built for two.

Robson Street

Immensely popular for its diverse mix of internationally renowned designer stores, one-of-a-kind specialty boutiques, and gourmet restaurants, Robson Street is one of Vancouver's most fashionable hot spots.

Chinatown

Rich with culture and history, explore the streets of Chinatown lined with exotic herbs, teas, produce and porcelain collectibles or take some time to experience the tranquility of Dr. Sun Yat-Sen Classical Chinese Garden.

Gastown

Walk along the cobblestone streets of Vancouver's first official settlement known for its intriguing architecture, Northwest and Inuit art galleries and the photogenic two-to-three-minute steam clock that whistles on the hour.

Aquarium

Canada's largest aquarium is non-profit organization that continually dedicates itself to the conservation of aquatic life through display, interpretation, education, research and direct action. Experience all of this and more when you visit the Vancouver Aquarium.

Vancouver Lookout!

The newly renovated observation deck situated high above Vancouver offers a spectacular view of downtown and Greater Vancouver, the majestic North Shore Mountains and Vancouver Island off the Pacific Coast.
